

The image is a vertical advertisement for a lounge. It features a dark, textured background with wisps of white smoke rising from the top and bottom. A large black circle is centered in the image. Inside the circle, at the top, is a glass teacup filled with orange tea, with a teapot pouring more tea into it. Below the teacup is a small green plant. In the center of the circle, the word "LOEEO" is written in a large, stylized, black, serif font. Below the word, there is a burlap sack filled with dark brown coffee beans. To the right of the sack, a white coffee cup sits on a saucer, surrounded by a pile of coffee beans. The word "LOUNGE" is written in a smaller, black, sans-serif font at the bottom of the image, partially overlapping the coffee beans.
